

left or right—Which is which?

It's harder when the little man turns round to face you!

If you think it's on the left you should colour the word that says left.

If you think it's on the right, colour the word that says right.

