The illustration shows two barn owls perched on a branch. The owl on the left is smaller and is being held by the larger owl on the right. Arrows point from labels to each owl: 'Plop' points to the smaller owl, and 'daddy' points to the larger owl. Below the owls, there are several word boxes arranged in three rows. The first row contains 'he', 'was', 'dark', and 'Owl'. The second row contains 'tree', 'of', and 'the'. The third row contains 'Barn', 'baby', 'afraid', 'field', and 'mummy'. A horizontal line is drawn above the word boxes.
