

Name :

Find the opposite word to complete the sentences.

under down before good new out girl come last little

An elephant is big but a frog is _ _ _ _ _.

Tom went up stairs but Joe went _ _ _ _ stairs.

Paul is a boy but Jill is a _ _ _ _.

The dog climbed over the box and the cat climbed _ _ _ _ _ the box.

The frog jumped in the pond but the dog jumped _ _ _ of the pond.

The man will go to my house and then he will _ _ _ _ back again.

I will play out _ _ _ _ _ I have my tea but I will play out after tea as well.

This dog is very bad but that dog is _ _ _ _.

I was first in the line but my friend was _ _ _ _.

My book is old but this one is _ _ _.

Name :

The words in bold in the sentences are adjectives. Put in an adjective with the opposite meaning in each space. The words below will help you. They are all adjectives.

weak dirty straight wet hard empty new happy

1. I like my old book but I like _____ books too.
2. Mark had a sad face but Jane has a very _____ face.
3. The strong elephant is afraid of the _____ mouse.
4. The princess sleeps on a soft bed. The prisoners sleep on a _____ floor.
5. "Put on some dry clothes and take those _____ shoes off!"
6. "Look at your _____ T-shirt!" shouted mum "Put a clean one on now"
7. His bent old back hurt. He needed a good _____ stick to help him walk.
8. "Here is a full glass of water. Drink it all up then give the _____ glass to me" said Tom.