

(11) Poems about Pets

Shown smaller than original

First lines:

1. Can I have a pet please? By Karen King
2. What do we do with our poorly pets (the vets) by Gavin Stewart
3. As above continued
4. As above continued
5. I called into the pet shop
6. I visited the pet shop
7. Puppies are furry
8. I had a little poodle
9. Cats sleep anywhere
10. I like —
11. I have a little dog
12. Asleep he wheezes at his ease by Ted Hughes
13. Look at that!
14. My cat is kind in winter
15. I think mice are rather nice
16. I've got a little puppy
17. My brother has a pet spider

I like--
the furry ones-- the waggy ones
the purry ones
the hoppy ones
that hurry,
The glossy ones
the saucy ones
the sleepy ones
the leapy ones
the mousy ones
that scurry,
The snuggly ones
the huggly ones
the never, never ugly ones... all soft
and warm
and furry.

