

The thermometer has a special coloured liquid inside a glass tube.

The level of the liquid inside tells us what the temperature is.