

98. Food Poems

Each of the poems come in A4 AND A5 versions with pictures
Also A4 AND A5 versions without pictures (use for teaching & scribbling on)

Miss Apple I am little Miss Apple, My home is in a tree, Way up in the branches, So please—take a bite!  Unknown	Feasts Apples heaped on market barrows, Juicy plums and ripe pumpkins, yellow and green, To light with candles at Hallowe'en.  By Shirley Hughes
--	---

Low Quality Samples

Mangoes

Mangoes ripe and juicy,
Hanging from the tree,
Mangoes ripe and ready,
Go pick one for me.

Pawpaws ripe and juicy,
Hanging from the tree,
Pawpaws ripe and ready,
Go pick one for me.

Traditional Caribbean.

List of Poems

1. Greengrocer by John Cotton
2. This is just to say by William Carlos Williams
3. Miss Apple by unknown
4. Feasts by Shirley Hughes
5. Mangoes—Traditional Caribbean
6. Peas—Unknown
7. The Cabbage is a Funny Veg by Roger McGough
8. Raspberry Jam by Moira Andrew
9. Where Apple Trees Once Stood by Charles Thomson
10. Sounds Good by Judith Nicholls